AFFAIRN IN ARRANNAS. As a truthful officel to the report of Col. PORTER, of Gen. GRANT'S staff, We publish the following from the Little Rock Gazette of Tuesday last, concerning the present condition of affairs in the northeastern part of Arkansas: "Our Information from Augusta, the "headquarters of the 'Department of "the northeast," came by the last "steamer from the upper White river "country. UPHAM'S militia has in-"creased from one hundred, at the date " of DANFORTH's report, to one thousand "at the present time. These comprise " both whites and negroes, who are ly-"ing about idle, without discipline or "drill-a mere mob, with loose pickets "thrown out and squads of foragers com-"ing and going in all directions. A "thousand men are thus being fed, " clothed and mounted from the private "property of Woodruff and adjacent

"counties. Add to that what these ruf-" flans will carelessly waste and pur-" posely destroy, and the aggregate loss "to the people of that scotion will "equal the total fruits of the past "year's labor, and generally all that "they powers, save perhaps the soil. "What will the sensible, sober, unim-"passioned people of quiet sections of "our country think of these things 24 when they shall come to know it all *1 There is no longer room for doubting "the truth of the representations made " concerning this brigand militia, for it " is a matter of public record, and "the North can learn the main " facts from the Radical press itself. "Then, since even the best disciplined

" troops will commit some outrages while " in the field, what shall be expected of "a body of men wholly without discip-"line or supplies, and with malice in seach heart, often of years' growth, "turned loose under the leadership of "unscrupulous men for the avowed pur-" pose of ' making the executive branch "of the Government felt." It is even

" ments on each other's rights in the " most quiet times, and by the aid of the "wisest laws. What then is to be ex-" pected where there is no law but mob "law, and when the aggressors are " plainly told that those in their power " have no rights." An ex-Union officer writing from De-
